

Dedicated Access Options - Services - Kansas.Net Internet Services

Written by Nick David

Tuesday, 08 February 2011 17:21 -

Organizations who wish to have continuous access to the Internet will enjoy uninterrupted Internet connections with KansasNet's high speed dedicated service options. KansasNet will work with your organization to assess your Internet needs and set up the best possible solution.

Frame-relay circuit and T1 pricing is going to vary based on the amount of bandwidth needed. Below you will find the average monthly pricing schedule. Setup & installation costs may apply. Please contact us for help to determine what your loop pricing. Loop type may be point-to-point, frame-relay, or ATM.

128K	This option offers a speed of $195/mo.	128Kbps. A fractional T1 is the recommended
+ LOOP
256K	This option offers a speed of $225/mo.	256Kbps. A fractional T1 is the recommended
+ LOOP
384K	This option offers a speed of $245/mo.	384Kbps. A fractional T1 is the recommended
+ LOOP
512K	This option offers a speed of $265/mo.	512Kbps. A fractional T1 is the recommended
+ LOOP
768K	This option offers a speed of $295/mo.	768Kbps. A fractional T1 is the recommended
+ LOOP
T1	This service is capable of $360/mo.	transferring data at speeds of up to 1.544 Mbps. T1 service
+ LOOP
T3	At 45 Mbps, T3 service is $CALL	faster than standard Ethernet. This service is intended for

These services include 24/7 monitoring and technical support as needed, available 6 days a week by our in-house, dedicated technical support department. For more information on dedicated high-speed services, please contact us using the form on the left.

Joomla SEO by AceSEF